what?

All fine art printmaking media, including intaglio, relief prints, lithography, silkscreen, monotype, monoprint, are eligible for CPC.2014. Digital prints are eligible only if they incorporate other methods of hand pulled printing. Art must be generated on stone, block, or plate using the printing process, and hand-pulled. The presented works must have been created between 2010 and 2014.

Celebrating Print Competition ("CPC") is an international competition for fine art prints created by artists of Czech and Slovak background. CPC is organized by KADS NY with the goal to showcase in New York City contemporary prints from Czech and Slovak global arts community. The inaugural CPC 2014 is organized under the auspices of Consulate General of the Czech Republic in New York and Consulate General of the Slovak Republic in New York, with media support of Czech Center New York.
